| Contract Start Date:               | The Month-to-Month price plan will become effective on the date following the expiration of Customer's existing contract, and will continue monthly until contract is renewed, or service with CleanSky is cancelled. Customer will not be charged a cancellation fee for cancelling Month-to-Month service.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Renewal Terms/Contract Expiration: | If you have a fixed term agreement with CleanSky that is longer than 3 months and it is approaching the expiration date, CleanSky will send you two advance notices in separate mailings at approximately 45-60 days and 30 days before the expiration date. CleanSky Energy will explain your options in this advance notice. Following the term of your Agreement, service will continue for successive one (1) month periods on our Month-to-Month variable Price Plan if no alternate option is selected prior to the expiration of the original term. If you cancel service with CleanSky after the expiration of your contract term, you will not be charged an early termination fee. |
| Statement Regarding Savings        | Savings are not guaranteed with this contract.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
